General rules and regulations:

The show is open to all Beagles registered in FCI kennel clubs who have reached the necessary age at least at the day of the show. Imported dogs must be registered in national stud books. The organizer of the show is not responsible for damage caused by the dog or the exhibitor, for death or loss of the dog. Dogs must remain on leashes. Bitches in heat are excluded; as are pregnant bitches and lactating bitches and dogs which have been operated on to improve conformation. Bringing puppies to the show for the purpose of their sale is forbidden. If the show is cancelled for general reasons, entry fees will be used for payments for the show costs.

Fill in a separate form for each dog! A copy of the FCI pedigree, the recognized Champion title for Champion class and an International working certificate for Working class must be included! All Entry forms to Working class or Winner class without FCI-Working certificate or without confirmed champion title will be automatically transferred to Open class.

The entry of the dog will be confirmed 5 days before the show by e-mail. The organizer is not responsible for incorrectly filled entry forms.
